

34, Woodside,

Wimbledon.

7 April 1910

Beloved Brother

Though I wrote to you a short time ago, I just send a line to say that I hear that C. E. Lawrence of Kamlups is likely to be turned aside by Upton. I do not know whether you have any influence with Lawrence, who was much esteemed here, but is slated for a long time in Winchester, so that he did not see many - This F. Wells movement which is popish in assumption, seems

To extinguish all christian affection & they have forced division in several places. But where the brethren have got free from it, there seems quite a reviving of spiritual energy & blessing. And I do trust that, through God's mercy, that may go on. The general state of things is low indeed, - but there is a desire with many of the young to walk so as to please God, & to read the Scripture. The want of conscience & independence, <sup>and spirit of slander</sup> shown by the T. W. partisans is terrible, especially Dr. Forberg, who falsifies every fact either by what he states or omits, so as to give it a false colouring; & he quibbles over the word "fellowship" exactly as they did in T. Wells, so as to conceal their self will and unrighteousness — It is heart-rending to have to be occupied with these things; but I think the Lord is giving us deliverance, at all events in a measure.

Our much love to the Lord

Yours affectionately in Him

M. J. Lowe

I sent you the package of 18
"Letters" for Binding Lix. & Lx together some short time ago —